

Lisa Westgate
Founder & Principal
Global ESG, Procurement, and Supplier Diversity
Partner

Lisa Westgate is the Founder and Principal of LNWestgate, LLC, a renowned expert in the fields of procurement and supplier diversity. With over 25 years of industry experience, Lisa has demonstrated her expertise through various progressive roles in procurement, customer success, and operational functions within both public and private sectors. Notably, she has been sought after for her advisory services, specializing in solutions optimization and harnessing the power of data to drive supplier diversity and foster transformative procurement practices. .

Lisa's change management is driven by her passion for "Changing the world through Business," which brings transformative solutions for supplier diversity programs that are client-centric, resilient, and innovative—bridging the gaps between vision and reality, transcending traditional boundaries to implement unique strategies that reflect clients' requirements. Her approach is underpinned by measurable goals and a process that ensures consistency, scalability, and sustainability, with a commitment to creating inclusive supply chains that drive meaningful change and tangible outcomes.

Ms. Westgate holds a Master's degree with a concentration in Conflict Resolution and Negotiation from Cambridge College.